

WOODLAND HILLS INTERACTION SERIES

Visit with Robert Bilheimer

Academy Award nominated filmmaker

January 27, 2014 9:00am-10:00am

Robert Bilheimer is an Academy Award nominated documentary filmmaker. His films include The Cry for Reason, A Closer Walk, and Not My Life. Bilheimer is the President and Director of Worldwide Documentaries, Inc., an organization that aims to use film to highlight the injustices occurring with marginalized people across the globe. Bilheimer's special interests include the injustices surrounding apartheid, human trafficking, and modern slavery. Bilheimer is the executive director of the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime.

- Robert Bilheimer was nominated for an Academy Award for his documentary The Cry of Reason.
- Bilheimer is known for addressing difficult topics and raising awareness through his films.