

WOODLAND HILLS INTERACTION SERIES

Visit with Barnes Johnson

Director of the Office of
Resource Conservation and Recovery

April 29, 2016 1:00-2:00 pm

Barnes Johnson is the Director of the Office of Resource Conservation and Recovery (ORCR), part of the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA). ORCR's mission is to protect human health and the environment by ensuring responsible national management of hazardous and nonhazardous waste. ORCR implements the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act. Mr. Johnson has worked in a variety of EPA programs including radiation and indoor air, solid and hazardous waste, policy, enforcement and water offices and was previously the Deputy Director of the Office of Superfund Remediation and Technology Innovation.

- Barnes Johnson has over 33 years of experience with the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA).
- Mr. Johnson began his career as a researcher at Louisiana State University and has Master's degrees in Wildlife and Fisheries Management and Applied Statistics.